Tired Out

"I was very poorly and could hardly get on my feet. I was tired out all the time. Then I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it only took two bottles to make me feel perfectly well."—Mrs. N. S. Swinney, Princeton, Mo.

Tired when you go to bed, tired when you get up, tired all the time. Why? Your blood is impure, that's the reason. You are living on the border line of nerve exhaustion. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and be quickly cured.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about the grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and you will be cured.

J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Holds up a Congressman.
"At the end of the campaign," Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Middleburgh Drug Co., Graybill, Garman & Co., Richfield, Pa. A MINISTER'S BUSY WIFE.

Peruna is a Prompt and Permanent Cure for Nervousness.
Mrs. Anna B. Fiehart, recent superintendent of the W. C. T. U. headquarters, at Galesburg, Ill., was for ten years one of the leading women there. Her husband, when living, was first President of the Nebraska Wesleyan University, at Lincoln, Neb.
In a letter written from 461 Sixty-Seventh street, W., Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Fiehart says the following in regard to Peruna:
"Having lived a very active life as wife and working partner of a busy minister, my health failed me a few years ago. I lost my husband about the same time, and gradually I seemed to lose health and spirit. My daughter is a confirmed invalid, and we both felt great need of an invigorator.
"One of my neighbors advised me to try Peruna. A bottle was immediately secured and a great change took place in my daughter's, as well as in my own health. Our appetites improved very greatly, the digestion seemed much helped, and restful sleep soon improved us, so that we seemed like new women.
"I would not be without Peruna for ten times its cost."—MRS. ANNA B. FIEHART.

PARTY MEN LIBERAL.

An Exciting Contest For Governorship Without Any Bitterness.
IT IS A FREE AND OPEN FIGHT

ively Campaigning Throughout the State, and a Great Crowd Expected at the Coming Republican State Convention.
(Special Correspondence.)
Harrisburg, May 6.—General Frank Reeder, chairman of the Republican state committee, when here this week conferred with T. Larry Eyre, his chief assistant, regarding the arrangements for the state convention, which will be held five weeks from tomorrow, on June 11th. As the date for the convention draws near the contest for the gubernatorial nomination becomes more interesting. A battle royal is under way and the election of delegates in several counties have been attended by spirited rivalry. Attorney John P. Elkin and Colonel L. A. Watres have been the sole active candidates in the way of competing for delegates, but the woods are full of dark horses, hoping that something will turn up to let them have a chance for the big prize.

NO STATEMENT FROM QUAY.
The efforts of the Philadelphia party leaders in behalf of Judge Pennypacker for the governorship followed with increased activity after Senator Quay's visit to that city last week. The senator did not authorize any public statement that he was irrevocably committed to Judge Pennypacker, in fact, he did not give any public interview going on record as favoring any candidate.
Friends of Judge Pennypacker have, however, been quite hopeful of getting his active co-operation in the canvass for the nomination. Some have stated that Senator Quay, while not advocating the nomination of Judge Pennypacker has at least not discouraged his Philadelphia supporters in their plans to try to carry off the nomination. Others believe that Senator Quay will be guided by developments and be largely influenced by the showing the Pennypacker men make before the convention meets.

ELKIN MEN ACTIVE.
From Indiana county, the home of Attorney General Elkin come reports that they would be pleased to have their opponents unite upon Judge Pennypacker, as they would then have a good excuse to appeal to the Republicans of the interior of the state to stand together against allowing Philadelphia to have both the governorship and the United States senatorship. The Elkin men say they are strongest in the interior counties and that they would prefer to have the opposition take up a Philadelphiaian.
Colonel Watres' admirers continue their aggressive work and will not admit that Senator Quay is committed to Judge Pennypacker. They hope to get his support. In Allegheny county former Governor Walter Lyon has been working up sentiment in favor of Frank J. Torrance, of Allegheny, for governor, but as yet there are no indications that Allegheny county will take part in the favorite son campaign.
In Venango county the friends of Congressman Joseph C. Sibley were in control. Sibley can have these state delegates should he become a candidate for governor.

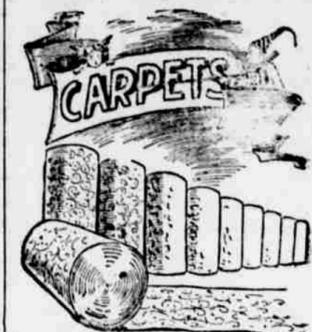

ALL CLAIM ALLEGHENT.
The recent declarations of Thomas A. Bigelow, leader of the Citizens' party, in favor of Mr. Elkin, has made the Allegheny situation, the subject of much discussion. It is claimed almost solely by both Elkin and his opponents.
Keen interest is also manifested in the counties of Northumberland and Huntington, where it is expected that there will be a popular vote on the governorship at the coming primaries.
It is not known whether Judge Pennypacker's name is to be submitted to the voters of any county, but should Mr. Elkin, Watres and Pennypacker figure in a triangular contest at the polls the struggle for delegates would be certainly a lively one as well as be calculated to arouse great party interest for the canvass after the nomination shall be made.

GOOD FEELING MANIFESTED.
It is remarkable how the party workers throughout the state have held within proper lines and not permitted the contest over the governorship to engender feelings of bitterness such as would be likely to affect the polling of the full party vote after the ticket shall be placed in the field.
While it is believed that the coming state convention will be the best attended gathering of Republicans ever held in Pennsylvania yet there is every reason to believe that it will be one of the most harmonious and at the same time most satisfactory conventions held in this state in many years.
That the nominee of the convention, whoever he shall be, will be loyally and ardently supported in the contest at the general election there can be no doubt. The party organization was never in a better condition, and the Republican voters of Pennsylvania will stand by their party candidates when they shall be named by the convention.

The First Shipment.
Newlywed (after the first cloud has passed)—Kitty, you must not feel un-happy; why, in my opinion never to count for anything?
Kitty (after thinking it over)—Surely—sometimes—when we have the same opinion yours will count and when we differ mine will.—N. Y. Tribune.
No Joke.
The Saxon—It's a funny thing but have you ever noticed that Shakespeare never introduced an Irishman into any of his plays? There can be but one construction placed upon this, and that is—
Pat (interrupting)—That he knew better, begob! than to make fun of an Irishman.—Ailly Sloper.
Never Came Back.
Cawkins (to man he's just met)—My clients always return to me again after I've served them once.
Danks—You're lucky! Mine never do.
Cawkins—Too bad! Er—are you a lawyer?
Danks—No, sir; I'm an undertaker.—Judge.
Miserly Scheme.
"I never saw such a miserly man as Tinkins."
"In what way?"
"Why, he always gets intoxicated before counting his money."
"What does he do that for?"
"So he can see double."—Chicago Daily News.
Sad Havoc.
Western Man—We had a terrible conflagration in Dugout City last week. Only 17 houses left standing.
Eastern Man—My goodness! How many were there before the fire?
Western Man—Nineteen.—N. Y. Weekly.
